

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF CHICAGO

RAHM EMANUEL
MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, all residents of the City of Chicago should be made aware of the ever-present dangers posed by potentially poisonous household substances; and

WHEREAS, children too often have access to over the counter and prescription medications, and potentially toxic household products; and

WHEREAS, for the past 57 years, the nation has observed National Poison Prevention Week to help prevent accidental poisonings and share tips for promoting active community involvement and increased awareness in poison prevention; and

WHEREAS, as the oldest and one of the largest poison centers in the nation, the Illinois Poison Center has provided timely poison prevention and treatment services to the people of Illinois for more than 65 years; and

WHEREAS, the Illinois Poison Center is a mainstay in the emergency medical care system of the State of Illinois and is recognized nationally for its contributions to poison treatment and prevention; and

WHEREAS, 42 percent of nearly 80,000 poisonings reported last year to the Illinois Poison Center involved children younger than the age of five and could have been prevented; and

WHEREAS, the Illinois Poison Center carefully manages, evaluates, and resolves approximately 90 percent of poison exposure cases preventing about 4,800 emergency room visits, saving the State of Illinois more than $60 million a year in health care and lost productivity costs:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RAHM EMANUEL, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO, do hereby proclaim March 2018 to be POISON PREVENTION MONTH IN CHICAGO and urge all Chicagoans to educate themselves about the potentially harmful substances in their homes and take the necessary steps in creating healthy and safe home, play, and work environments.

Dated this 31st day of January, 2019.
